and your life will be happy - I just love salt.

Dear Emma,

I can't imagine Post Central without you. You're a girl I'll never forget; whenever I think of Jackson Hall, I'll always think of you.

You're a real good girl, Emma; always stay that way and you'll go a long way.

I'm enjoyed every minute of the time I've known you. I especially enjoyed having speech with you. Be sweet.

Love,

Barbara

Dear Edwinna,

We have strictly had fun this year. We seemed always to find something to do even if it had to be more daunting. I have been wonderful knowing you and will miss you late.
Be safe and much.

Love you,

Dearest 'Wina,

Well, school will be over in 3 more days. Then I'll never live on the old "back hall" again. This old hall has been the scene of some hair-raising incidents, hasn't it? MERE!! But we've had a fine time. I don't believe (sp?) SATAN himself could stand the hell we've RAISED!!

In this, my junior year in high school and my first (and last) year at E.C.J.C. I've had enough fun to last me --- well - at least a year! And you, ELLEN, and "MERE" wait - have been major influences in having that fun. So many have left and others are leaving -- Julia B., Jan; just 2, there, but they Reggae sent so many. I'll miss E.C.J.C. next year. While I slave away my SENIOR year at Central High, I'll think of you lucky coons up here taking life easy!

All my life I'll remember Jackson Hall and the bunch of wonderful girls living here. We've had our ups and our downs, but they've just been part of the fun. Be sweet, Edwina, and remember,

I love you!
Jackie J.

Dear Edwina,

My Freshman year in College wouldn't have been complete without you running around cheering everybody up when they were blue. It's been fun going to school with you and I sincerely hope that next year will be as good as this has been.

You're swell, Edwina!

Dear Edwina,

Edwina, you have no idea how much cheer and brightness you have brought into the lives of everybody with whom you have come in contact since you have come here.

East Central has certainly been a more wonderful place because of your presence. You're one of

Dear Edmura,

Well, kid, it looks as if we're about to be promoted from lowly freshmen to worldly sophomores - you to a sophomore, that is, and me to a housewife.

It's been fun having you, Maurice, and Allen living across from us, Edmura - We'll never forget the corny jokes we've told together nor the crazy stunts we've pulled (especially you and Maurice).

Stay sweet, Edmura. I'll always love you.

Honey you know how much I think of you, so it is no use putting it in writing; although we are always slipping & it'll leave you although I'm always putting water over the door as I will feel in you, always lands on the little words. I mean the the time, the point the period. I want the first of it, then, the empty days when I forget me. And I don't suppose you will receive well possibly right before me day. I think you
